Projects

EXPLORING GLOBAL HAPPINESS – Python | Tableau

August 2023

- Cleaned, integrated, and analyzed nine years of World Happiness Report data to uncover trends and insights
- Employed Principal Component Analysis (PCA) to identify and rank key variables influencing happiness scores
- Developed and trained a linear regression model (MSE: 0.28, R2: 0.78) for accurate happiness score predictions
- Discovered that "Freedom" is the most impactful variable, accounting for 43% of the variance

INSTACART BASKET ANALYSIS – Python | Excel | PowerPoint

July 2023

- Cleaned and merged four data sets associated with orders, products, departments, and customers
- Answered questions from marketing and sales teams (such as busiest days of the week, busiest hours of the day, most loyal customers, etc.)
- Discovered differences in user ordering habits based on various characteristics (such as region, income, family status, loyalty status, etc.)

ROCKBUSTER STEALTH – PostgreSQL | Excel | Tableau | PowerPoint

June 2023

- Conducted data analysis for a fictional movie rental company's online video service launch
- Utilized SQL for complex queries, identifying top revenue-generating factors for strategic decision-making
- Used the results of my analysis to make recommendations to the BI department
